

FAURÉ BROTHERS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fauré Brothers Corporation, parent company to three 3rd party warehousing corporations – Great Lakes Warehouse Corporation, Gateway Warehouse Co., Inc., and Illiana Transit Warehouse Corporation – is pleased to announce organizational changes and the purchase of a new facility.

Michael Craig Crohan, son of Owner/CEO Amy J Fauré-Crohan and President Craig Crohan has joined its management team. Michael is a recent graduate of Manchester College with a degree in Business Management. Michael's initial responsibilities will be to work with other members of the corporate team to provide support and bench strength in multiple areas.

William (Bill) Miller has been Director of Business Development at Fauré Brothers for more than 22 years. To better reflect his corporate role, Bill's title has been changed to Vice President Customer Solutions. Bill is a 47 year industry veteran with experience in operations, project management, warehousing regulations, and business development. He served on the Warehousing Education and Research Council board and was President of WERC in 1999-2000.

Fauré Brothers has closed on an additional 80,00 square foot industrial warehouse near I-80 and Halsted Avenue in Thornton IL. It becomes an additional facility for the Gateway Warehouse industrial and chemical warehousing operation.

About Fauré Brothers Corporation

With a history dating to 1906 Fauré Brothers has been family owned and operated from its beginning in Hammond IN. Amy Fauré Crohan is the 3rd generation owner. The company has grown by providing quality 3rd party warehousing services at its locations on the south side of the greater Chicago industrial region. Fauré Brothers serves the industrial and chemical industries at the Gateway and Illiana Transit Warehouse locations and the food ingredient and packaging industries at its Great Lakes locations. The addition of the Thornton facility brings its total warehousing space to 900,000 sq.ft.
